5. KJDB WG Membership – Update

Eligibility:

After two attendances in three years as an observer, the WG may decide to invite the observer to become a new member (by majority vote). The working group will try to keep the number of members from 30 to 50, but there is no strict limit on the number.

Term:

1. No limit in the membership term.
2. Those who do not attend three consecutive meetings are dropped from the WG. In unusual circumstances, an excuse can be made to the chairperson before the meeting, which will be discussed at the meeting. The decision on the membership will be made by the WG.

6. KJDB WG Life Membership – Update

1. A person, who has been a member for 9 or more workshop years (counting the year of his/her becoming a member) and whose age is more than 65 year-old, may be elected a life member.
2. A person, who has been a member for 15 or more workshop years (counting the year of his/her becoming a member) and whose age is more than 55 year-old, may be elected a life member.
3. A person who passed away while being a member may be elected a life member in memoriam

- A workshop year means one year in which a workshop was held.
- The life membership is to allow a retired person to attend the workshop any time if they want (don't have to attend every year).
- As of 2016 KJDB workshop, Prof. Shunsuke Uemura, Prof. Yoshifumi Masunaga, Prof. Kyu-Young Whang, and Prof. Shojiro Nishio are Life members by the above Condition 1.
- Prof. Yongchul Oh is a Life member by Condition 3 (in memoriam).
